

Qawra Palace Hotel

All Inclusive Special Terms and Conditions

1. These All Inclusive Special Terms and Conditions are in addition to, and must be read in conjunction with, the Qawra Palace Hotel General Terms and Conditions.
2. The All Inclusive concept and the services which it entails are personal and non transferable in nature. For the avoidance of any doubt, Clients on an All Inclusive package are not allowed to invite third parties to make use of the Hotel's Facilities and/or consume food and beverages without effecting due payment thereof.
3. Clients on an All Inclusive package are forbidden from ordering more than one (1) consumption on each occasion. Thus, for clarity and by way of example, Clients on an All Inclusive package are not allowed to order more than one (1) drink per person at any one (1) time.
4. The following Hotel Facilities are available for the non-exclusive use by All Inclusive Clients:
 - The Lounge Bar
 - The Pool Bar
 - The Hall Bar
 - The Night Club

The aforementioned Facilities generally serve: soft drinks, water, alcoholic beverages, house brand beer, and local house wine. Teas and coffee are served in the Lounge Bar and Pool Bar only.

5. All Inclusive Clients are entitled to one (1) meal per person during lunch and dinner in the Hotel's restaurant, during which meals, All Inclusive Clients are also entitled to request house wine, soft drinks, house brand beer, water and/or tea/coffee.
6. All Inclusive Clients may avail themselves of snacks which are served from the Pool Bar and the Lounge Bar and which generally include assorted sandwiches, dry cakes, crisps, and & ice-creams (Pool Bar). A snack menu is available during the summer season between 11:00 and 18:00 hours.
7. For the avoidance of any doubt, Client hereby acknowledges and agrees that the Coffee Shop and Pizzeria are not included in the All Inclusive package.
